Sorry I left
I went to the beach
the crisp fresh air
was calling the
brittle gold waves
were waiting
so calm so peaceful

Amanda

Sea shells line the beach I try to collect them all I love shiny
seashells.

I love the beach to the cold crisp waves I love the shiny shells that I try to collect, and the sand that I mold into castles.

The squishy soft sand
Under my feet
When the tide comes in.

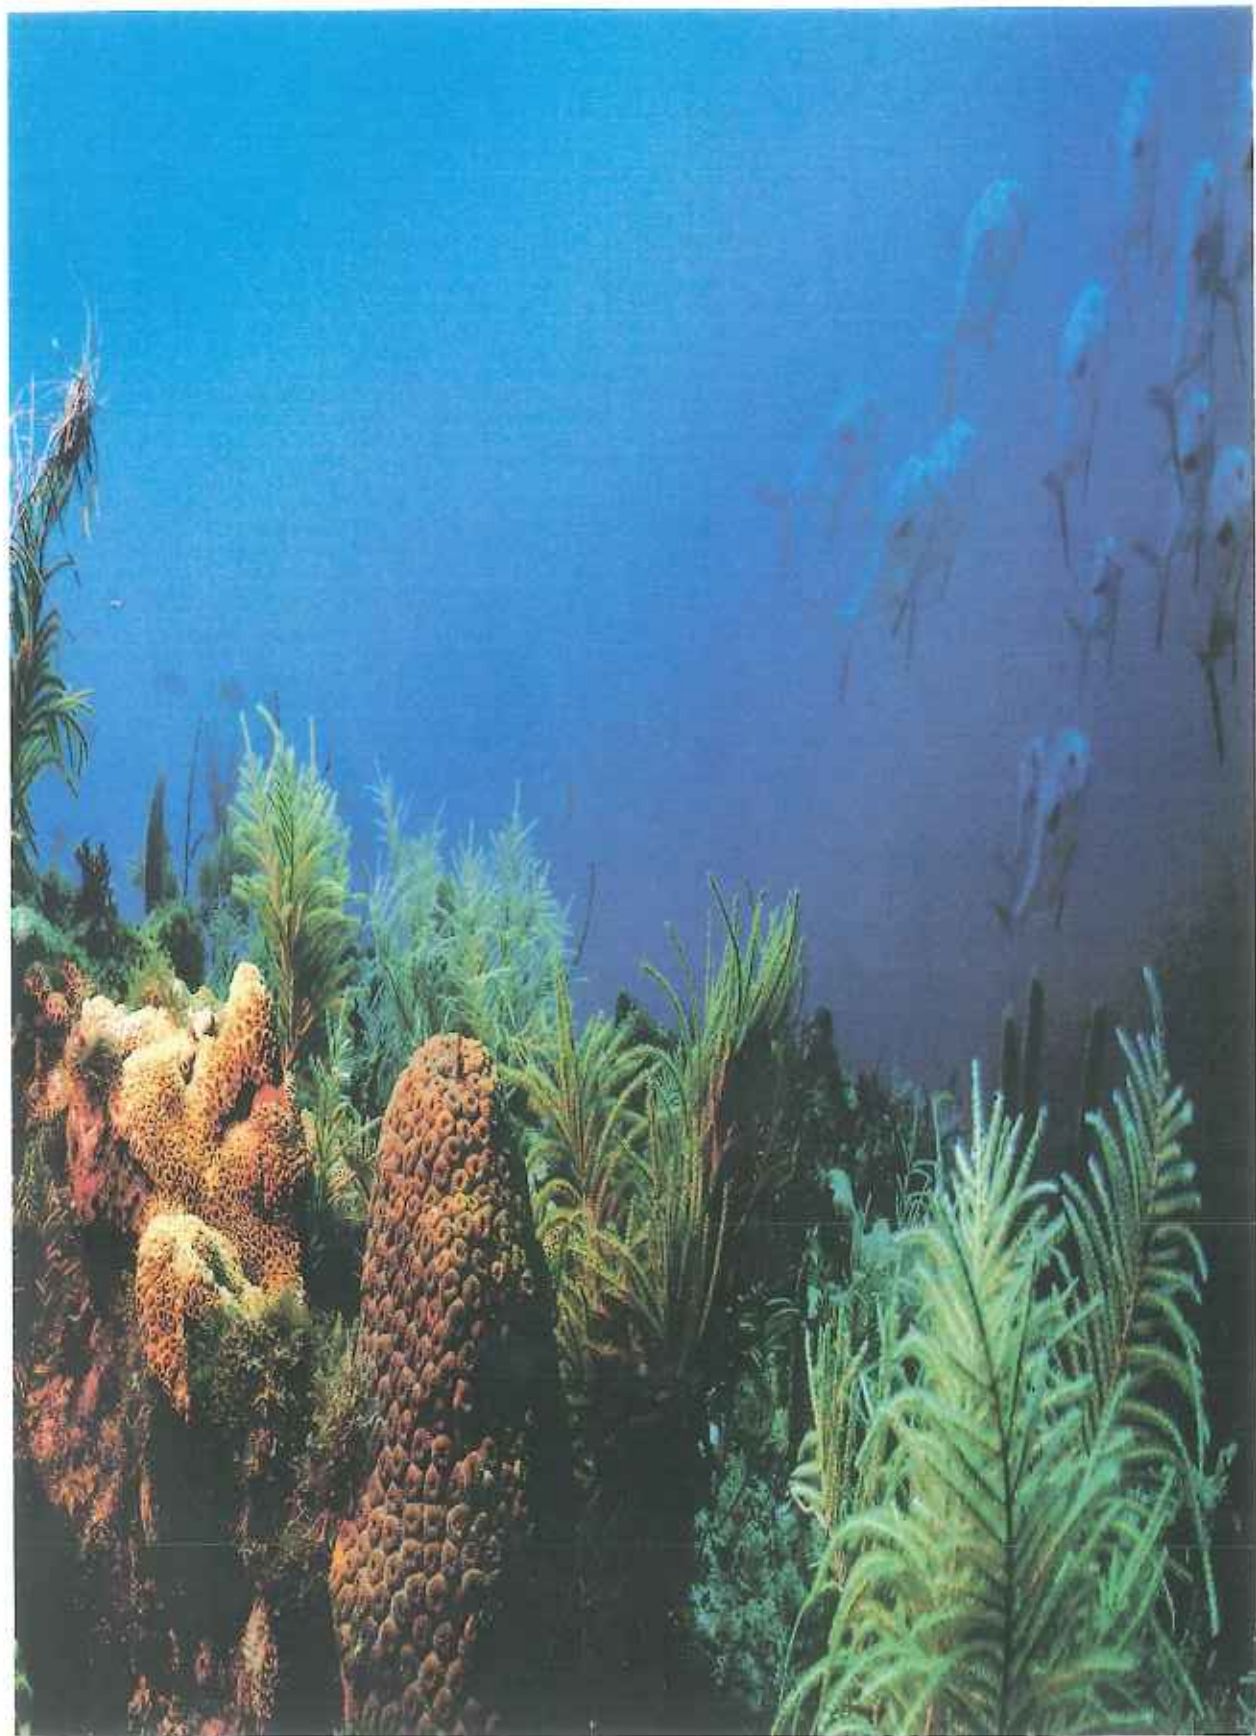

Ocean

Blue salty

Crashing swaying moving

Never stops

The big blue

The flow of the fishes are so calm, the coral so bright and beautiful the plants move so calmly.

I love the ocean so calm so peaceful so pretty what is there not to love.

About the Author

I am Corrine Tomasko I am the writer and illustrator of this book . I got the inspiration to theme my book about the ocean by when I visited texas and saw the ocean for the first time. I love swimming, I swim all the time even in winter but indoors of course. I love how my book came out and I hope you do to so thank for you reading this poetry that I wrote.

This is my favorite ocean painting I love it alot.
