Dedicated to:
my family and friends

Fire and Water were best friends.

They did everything together

Until...

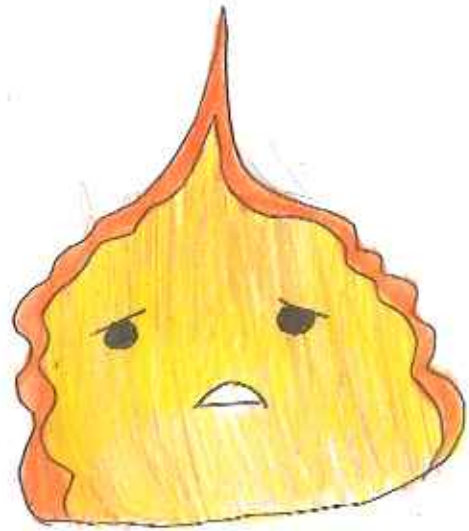

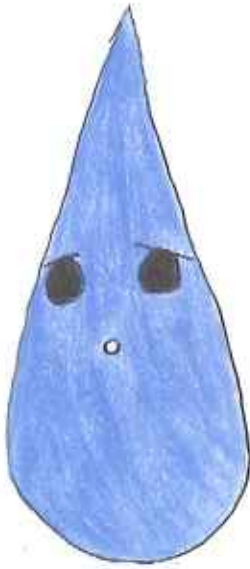

Earth told them that they were too different.

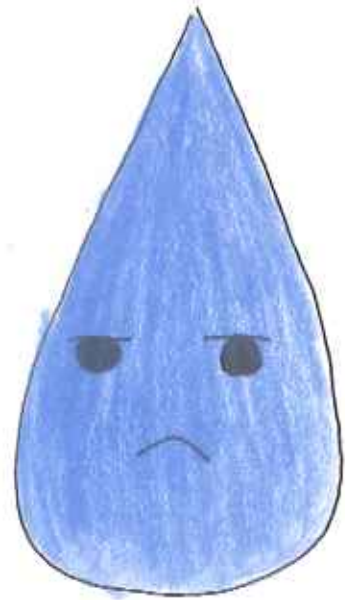

5

Earth said that they shouldn't be friends

And they believed earth.

7

Air had been watching them

8

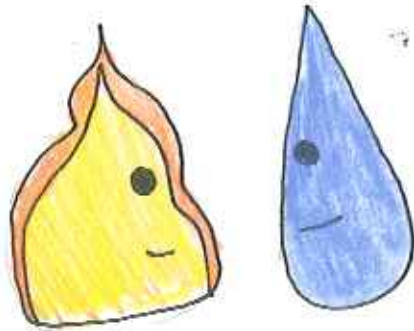

Air told them

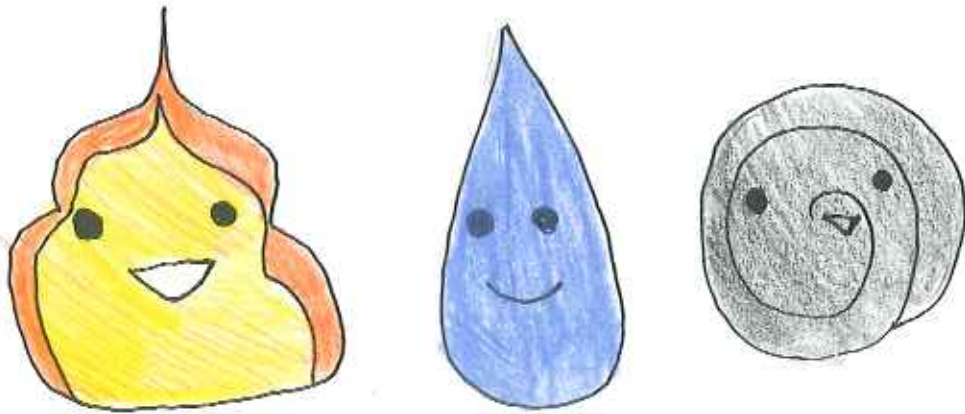

that it was ok
to be different

9

They admitted

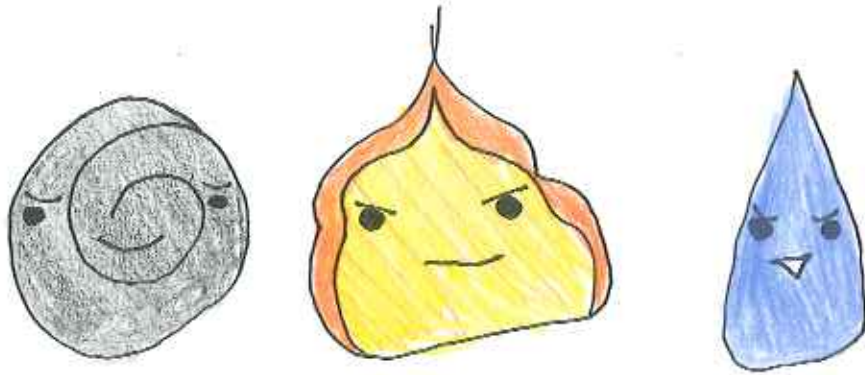

That they missed
each other

They became friends again.

Earth didn't like that

But they didn't care anymore.

50 Earth left.

And they lived happily ever after
