Sunset

Why did i call upon this rainy day
Was it because i felt so very sad
Or was it because it felt like may
Was i about to fade into the darkness
Were the clouds not true to the sunset
That started to turn gray the more i stared
As the orange,yellow,red,green,blue met
In the sunset that was being gared
By the moon's shadow burning bright red light
As i came closer the red light got brighter
How didn't i know it was so bright
Was it because i wanted to see the light
So long as the colors have combined and met
I will have no problem staring at the sunset

Farming

Do not go farming into the good night
The moon's light will drag you in the sky
It will drag you deep into the light
Because you are afraid of being so high
The moon's light will take you somewhere bright
Where all you can see is yellow and white
Where you are the only one by the light
And what you thought was so wrong was right
The moon's light will take anyone farming
At night when know one is around but you
The moon will take you to the worst place ever
Where it has the worst type of bad weather
