

A Helping

Paw

(Or Two)

BY Paola Rivera

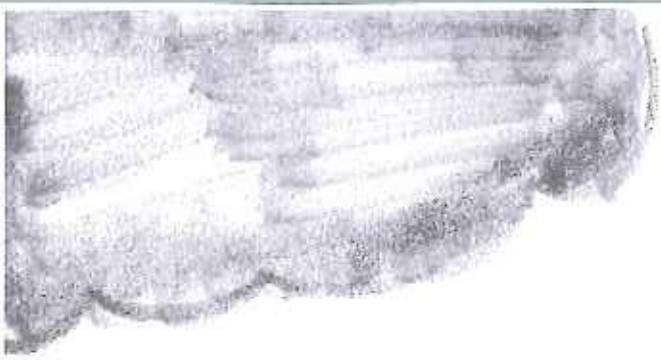

DEDICATED TO

My Family

1345 SW 42nd Street
Topeka, KS 66609

Studenttreasures.com

Maria

Alex

Snowflake

Once, there was a girl named

Maria.

She had 2 pets,

a bunny named

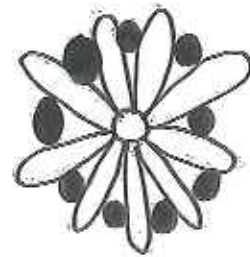

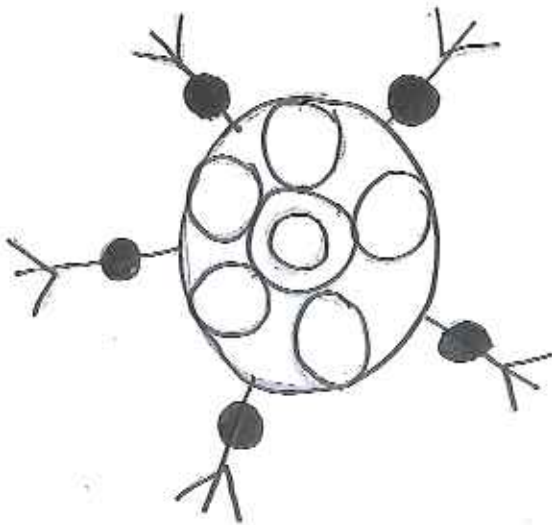

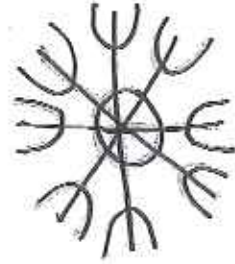

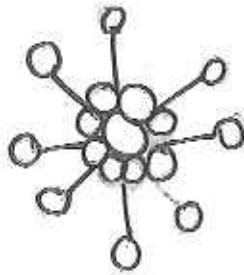

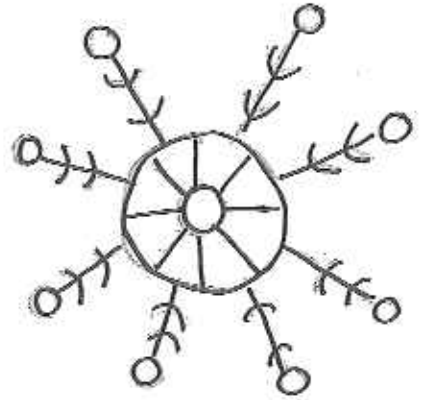

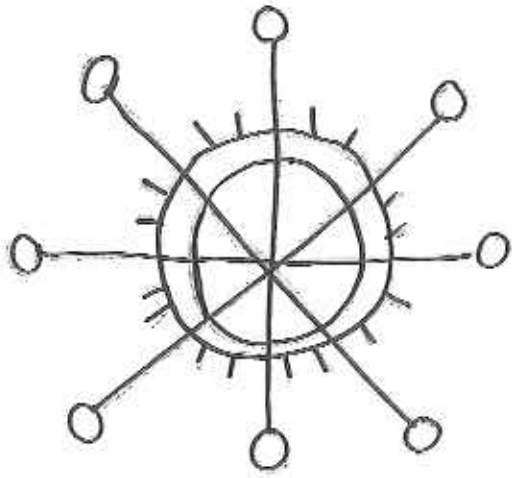

Sparkle,

and a puppy named

Alex.

One day, it was a snow day.

So Maria, Sparkle
and Alex decided to build a snowman.

Looking Good!

When they finished,

they named

him

The next day, Sparkle and Alex wanted to play in the snow.

When they got outside, they saw that Frostbite had come to life, and he was sad because he was lonely.

So they ended up playing all day!

They made cute
snow angels!

A week passed, and Sparkle and Alex wanted to play again, like they had been doing the past week. That day, the pets noticed something different. So, Sparkle went inside to get a thermometer.

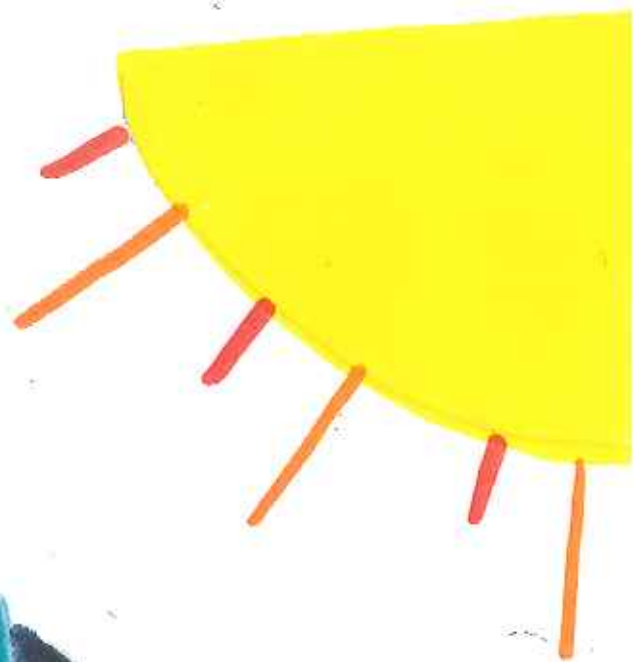

When Sparkle came back, Frostbite was smaller and really hot. Sparkle stayed with Frostbite while Alex left to get some ice.

While getting ice, Alex got caught by Maria. Alex takes a bag of ice and leads Maria outside.

Together, they put ice on Frostbite, and he started to feel better.

Just then, it started snowing again. So Maria, Alex, Sparkle, and Frostbite played the rest of the day.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Paola Rivera

lives Minneapolis, Minnesota with her sister, mom, and
dad. She is a very creative girl who lets her imagination run wild.