Minding her own business.

She heard a phone ring.

She ran to find the phone, and she found it.

She dug the phone up, and thankfully it was not dead.

She turned it on and found some numbers and called them.

On the way home she reported it to the police office.

And put up signs around the neighborhood.

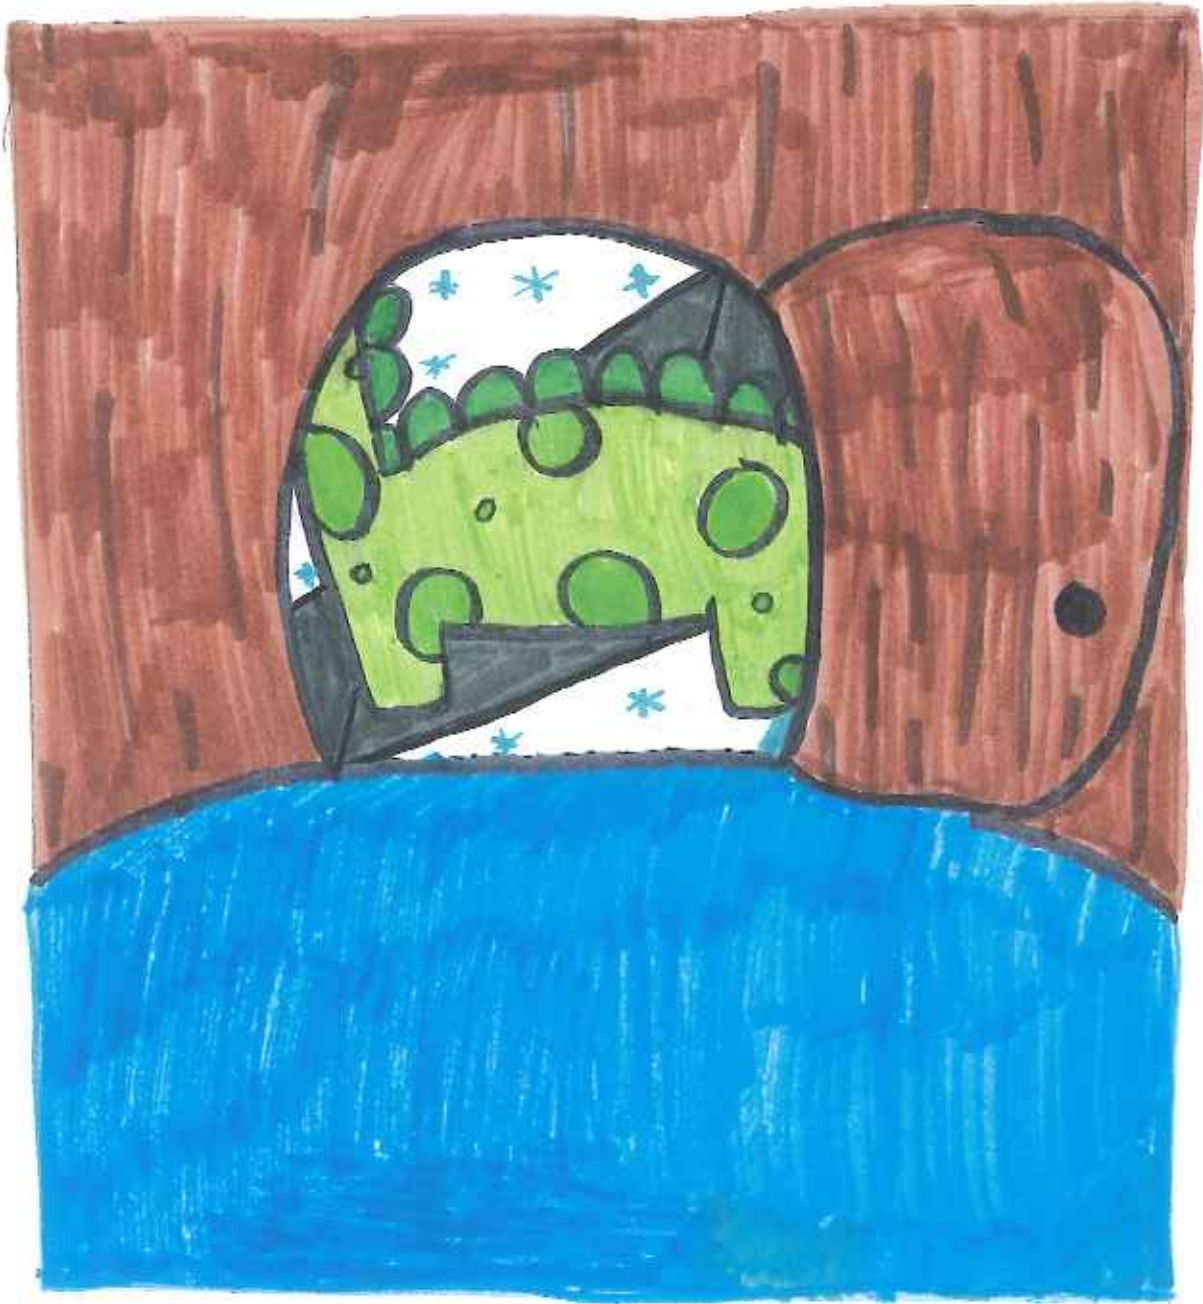

She got home and waited for someone to show up and claim the phone.

She watched TV as she waited and heard something at the door.

She opened the door to find a large body, it was the owner!

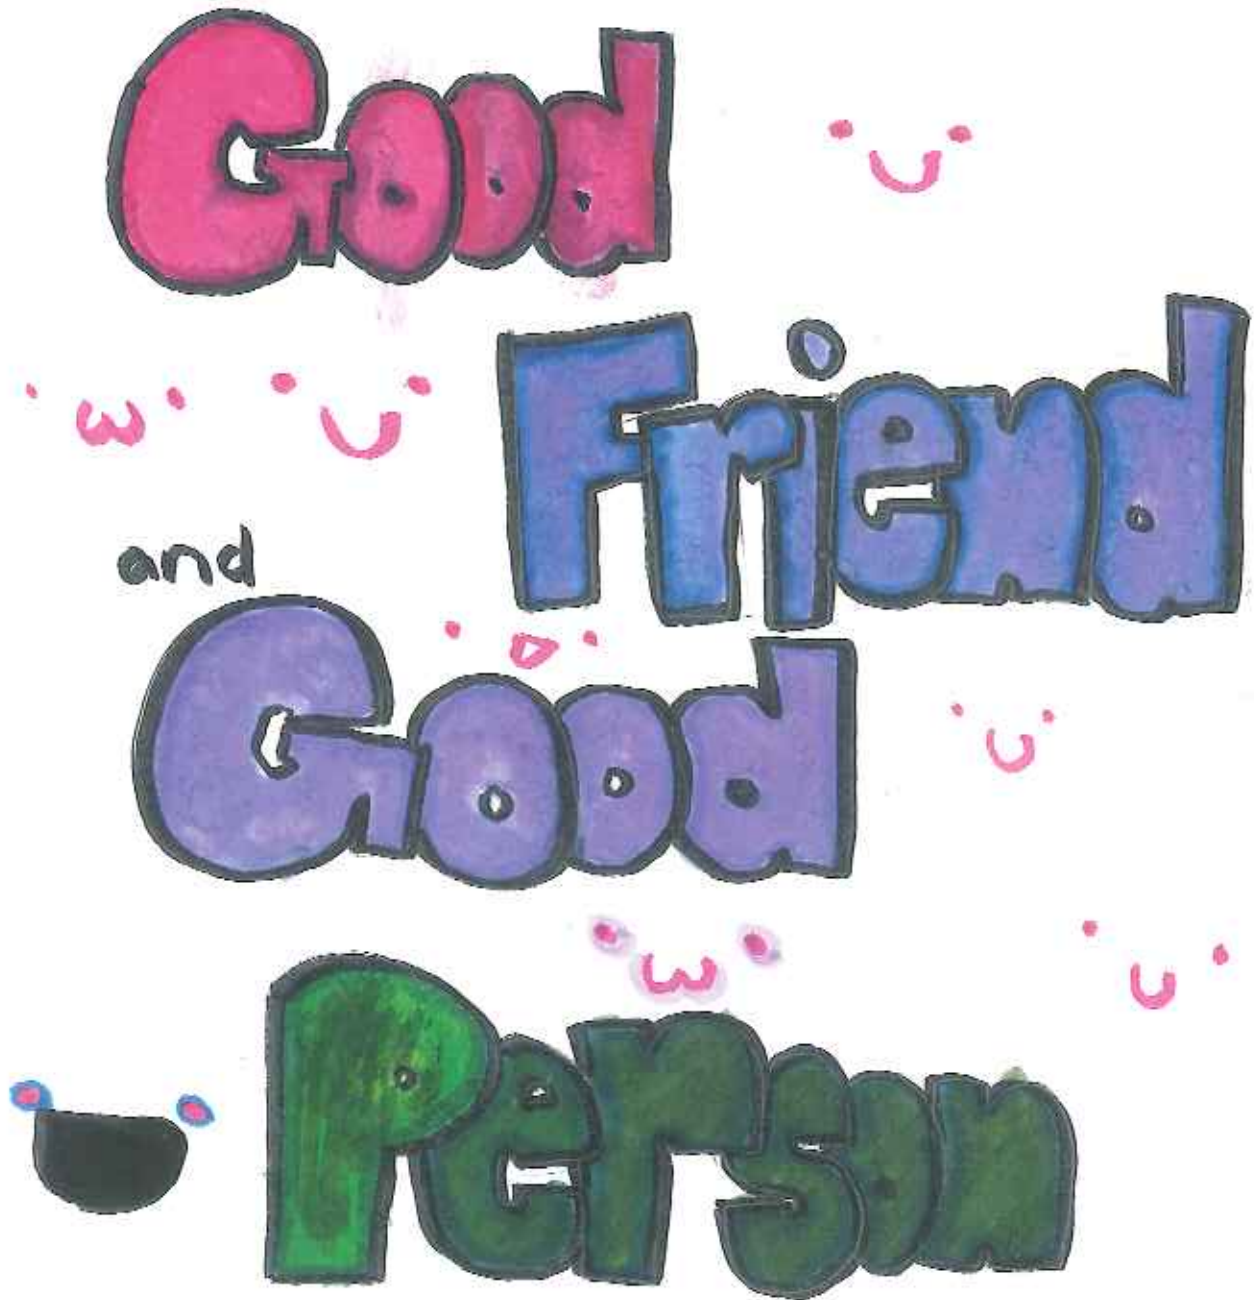

She let the owner in and, they talked for a while, mittens invited her for dinner.

They had chicken, mashed potatoes, corn on the cob and bread.

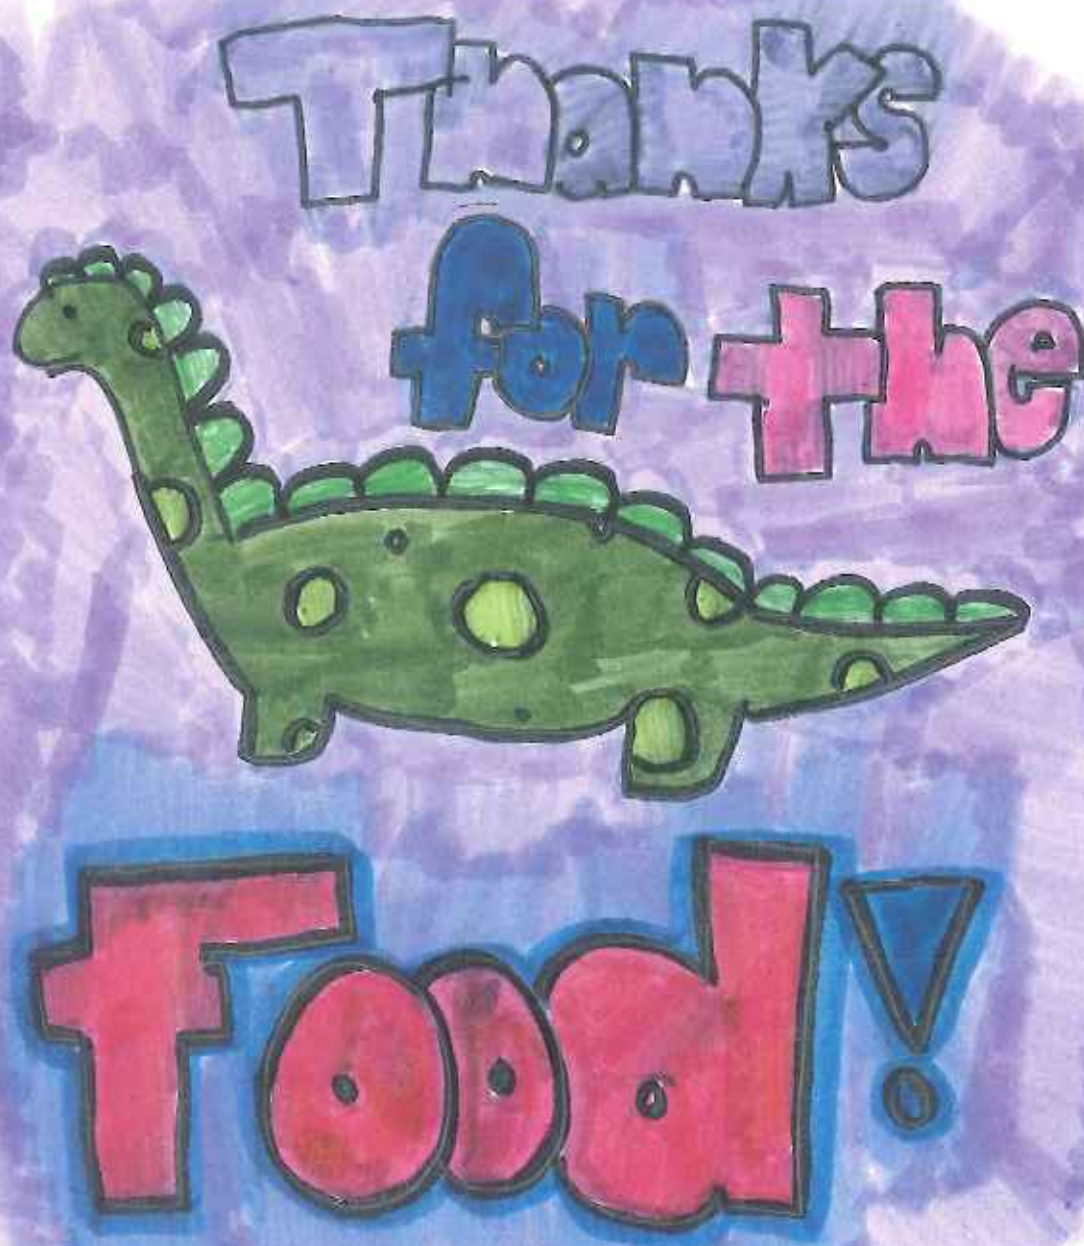

The dinosaur's name was snow ball and she was all sorts of green colors.

The dinosaur said you are a really good person, and a good friend.

"Good deeds turn you into good person" said snow ball.

The dinosaur thanked mittens many times and said,

"Thanks for having me over, see you later!" as she walked out the door.

Snowball only lived two houses away.

She also had a really nice house.

Mittens was really happy that Snowball had gotten her phone .

And she was happy that she made a new friend.
